

We can talk to your people...

Jeannette Pearce & Sara Turnbull are widely regarded as successful social and serial entrepreneurs. Together they are work activists and wild advocates. As speakers and writers they are valued for their ability to cut through to the core of complex problems, inspire change and be human, frank and provocative in a kind and caring way. As sustainable business leaders and authors of Better Off Working Wild they are widely recognised for their award winning work in:

- Creating sustainable, successful places and organisations
- Driving inclusive, resilient caring work culture
- Growing high impact social purpose organisations

Sara and JP have given keynote addresses and conference talks for multiple clients including the UN Environment Programme, JP Morgan Foundation, Procter & Gamble, Transport for London, Imperial College and AXA UK.

3

INSPIRING TALKS

23

COUNTRIES

1,200

ORGANISATIONS MENTORED

50,000

PEOPLE ENGAGED

In the current climate JP and Sara are being booked to offer leaders and organisations support on the following topics:

- How to be Better Off Working Wild A heavily researched, tested and experience based guide to adapt your own and your organisation's approach to work.
- The A-Z of Working Wild 26 radical tools for the individual, team and organisation, that allow you to be more human, connected to the wild and fully engaged in your work.
- A recovery where we are all Better Off How slowing down, giving as you grow and redefining wealth and success can be embedded in your organisational culture to create a radical shift in society.

Speaker Name: Jeannette Pearce MBE

Speaker short Biog: JP is an award-winning business entrepreneur, creative/ non exec Director and passionate campaigner on the social and environmental impact of work, enterprise culture and strong communities. Her experience spans from nationally acclaimed theatre designer to founder of multiple award winning businesses in the marketing communications, experiential, hotels, business campus, co-working and charitable sectors. With over 25 years' business growth and culture development experience alongside SMES, private clients, charities and major organisations, she is widely recognised for:

- Her work as a female founder and her diversity impact/awards
- Her contribution to Business and Entrepreneurship MBE
- Community champion awards

Speaker Name: Sara Turnbull

Speaker short Biog: Sara is a non-executive, social entrepreneur and chartered environmentalist with over 22 years experience delivering sustainable businesses and communities. She has worked internationally in community engagement, regeneration and social enterprise. Sara is a systems-thinker with deep influencing powers and is able to use her strategic insight and network to make a real difference to organisations she works with by attracting funding and developing strong teams and partnerships. She is widely recognised for:

- Leading and shaping genuinely sustainable places and organisations
- Her mentorship of creative, social and green start-up and growth businesses
- Knowledge and understanding of urban design and the built environment

